Project Useful-Usability-Disposability

The invasion of plastic into our lives has left deep wounds. Everybody knows. Mr. Organicity and his relatives from Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, Lithuania and Spain.

Mr. Organicity speaks to the people in their national languages in general to raise their awareness about the invasion of plastic into our households and communities, lands and waters.

Our heroes are Mr Organicity and his brothers from Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, Lithuania and Spain. They are happy, sad, upset, struggle and dream together or individually around the art land installations which make us see the plastic "garbage" in the right light.

Mr. Organicity is the pink window through which all can see what is going on in a project which teaches us how to give life to some results otherwise very technical.
